

On My Watch

Help us achieve a $25 million endowment by 2020!

On Your Watch...

Please do your best to help Scouts today through Friends of Scouting and including the OCBSA in your estate plans through a bequest or trust designation to help future generations of Scouts. Only through your giving decisions made today, On Your Watch, can we ensure Scouting will be there for others to receive the life transforming benefits you have enjoyed.

For more information and ways to give, please contact
Devon Dougherty at 714.546.8558 ext. 145 or e-mail devond@ocbsa.org.
You can also visit the council website at www.ocbsa.org.

A very special lasting recognition for your Eagle.

James E. West was the first Chief Scout Executive of the Boy Scouts of America. The West Fellowship award is available for gifts of no less than $1,000 to the Council endowment fund. The gift must be in addition to - and not replace or diminish - gifts made to the annual Friends of Scouting campaign.

What a better way to honor someone than with a gift that will benefit Scouting throughout the future. Recognize an outstanding new Eagle Scout, Silver Beaver recipient or an outstanding Troop leader, Cubmaster, Scoutmaster or Scouter in your life with a James E. West Fellowship.

“Honor someone today and you will strengthen the Boy Scouts of America for the next 100 years.”

Who are the members of the James E. West Fund?

Anyone who has a belief in Scouting can be a member of the James E. West Fellowship. This fund is a great way to recognize someone who has been important to you or important to Scouting. You can recognize your own work by joining in your name. A James E. West Fellowship is one of the best ways to contribute to the future of Scouting.

How to give to James E. West

- Gifts must equal $1,000.
- Payments can be made yearly, quarterly or monthly.
- The membership will not be fully recognized until the entire $1000 is received.
