Celebrating the 100th Anniversary of the Orange County Council in 2020

BE A PART OF HISTORY

Last Chance to be in the Commemorative Book

The Orange County Council, Boy Scouts of America, celebrates its centennial birthday in 2020. A highlight is the commemorative centennial history book written by noted local historian (and Eagle Scout) Phil Brigandi—and you can be a part of it. Besides presenting the amazing first century of Scouting in Orange County, the book will include a special sponsored section on local Scouts, Scouters, units, programs and activities.

Does your family have generations of Eagle Scouts?

How did the Scoutmasters in your troop change so many lives over the years?

What amazing campsouts and treks has your unit done?

What unique stories about leaders, parents, youth and how Scouting impacted your life do you want shared for generations to come?

Now you can tell those stories. You may share about how Scouting made a difference in your life, say thanks to your parents or leaders or simply wish Scouting a “happy birthday!” Troops, packs, crews, posts, ships, Order of the Arrow Chapters can all be a part sharing their unique history. Companies can also sponsor a tribute page.

Profile pages include a photo and up to 500 words and half-page profiles include 250 words and a small headshot photo only. Proceeds help fund Scouting programs as we begin our Second Century! Each profile reserved includes a complimentary published copy. Second Century Society members receive one complimentary full profile. Deadline for submissions is March 31, 2020.
